Today is the next step in developing purposeful collaboration which enables the healing professions to better activate communities and citizens to change behaviour to combat climate change (and the wider planetary crisis).

- Why does this agenda matter and what do we see as the key changes needed in: (Groups 1-3)
  Group 1 - Policies and practices of organisations, including use of resources (financial and people)
  Group 2 - Relationships, connections and power dynamics
Group 3 - People’s habits of thought, beliefs and assumptions

- Where is change going to come from?
- Where do we see common ground with others?

- Conclusions – Summarise the 3 key points for each question
