

Suggestions from Kieron Boyle, Impact Investing Institute:

- Our paper, Investing with impact in the endowment: Why do it and how to get started, is a practical guide designed to help foundation leaders and the professionals that advise them to make their first moves into impact investing.
- We have produced a set of case studies from pioneers in this field including Friends Provident Foundation, Guy's & St Thomas' Foundation, Esmée Fairbairn Foundation, Treebeard Trust and Ceniarth (a family office).

On a separate note, a few people at the consultation were interested in the research on how to frame action on climate in a way that motivates, rather than inhibits, change.
