

WINDSOR SUMMIT 2025 DELEGATES

REV. HAYLEY ACE

Hayley Ace is a Christian minister, advocate, and co-founder of Christian Action Against Antisemitism. A passionate leader of Lea Valley Church in North London, she works to raise awareness about antisemitism and to foster unity across communities.

As a member of New Zealand Maori community, she emphasises the Christian duty to love Israel and has lead rallies and public discussions on the importance of standing in solidarity with Jewish communities. In recognition of her efforts, she was awarded the 2024 Honorary Woman of Distinction Award by Jewish Care.

MORENIKE AJAYI MBE, DSTG, FCPFA

Morenike Ajayi MBE, DStG (Dame of the Order of St George), is the visionary CEO and Founder of Career Nuggets, a pioneering social enterprise committed to building black professional leaders for the future. Through Career Nuggets TV, as well as mentoring, networking, workshops, and events, Career Nuggets serves as a dynamic career development support hub, providing these services entirely on a voluntary basis.

A woman of many talents, Morenike is not only a chartered accountant but also an award-winning executive producer, TV presenter, property investor, author of 2 books and sought-after inspirational speaker. Her leadership and passion continue to inspire change and uplift communities.

ESTHER ANATO-DUMELO

Esther is an articulate and skilled barrister with over ten years of diverse experience in providing legal representation and consultancy for national and international partners and clients at all levels of the public and private sector. Alongside a successful international and common law practice and legal consultancy business, she has a growing practice specialising in human rights law.

Esther is a passionate believer in merging the spheres of business and philanthropy with human rights and justice causes, environmental, social and governance mandates and sustainable development goals. She is involved in legal pro-bono work for various charities. Esther is particularly passionate about mentoring young women and teenage girls who have faced a number of challenging personal circumstances.

CAROLINE ANSELL

Caroline served as the Conservative Member of Parliament for Eastbourne from 2015-2017 and 2019-2024, after 4 years as a community champion in local government. Caroline's professional background is in education, qualifying for school headship in 2008. She stood on a manifesto of 'No one left behind', inspired, she said, by her mother who had taught her own father to read. Caroline became the Chair of the backbench 1922 Education Committee, and in March 2022, Caroline was appointed as a member of the Education Select Committee. Throughout her tenure in Parliament Caroline championed her constituents' causes, successfully campaigning for national action on revenge porn, 'cuckooing', child safeguarding and for fairness for exam students undergoing cancer treatment.

REV. CELIA APEAGYEI-COLLINS

Celia Apeagyei-Collins is an influential leader, founder, and president of the Rehoboth Foundation, a dynamic organisation focused on leadership development, mentoring, and community transformation.

With experience across more than 40 countries, Celia is known for her work in equipping leaders through vision development consultancy and executive coaching. She is also a prominent international speaker and host of the popular TV show Take The Lead on TBNUK.

Listed as one of the top ten most influential black Christian women in the UK, Celia is committed to empowering individuals to create spiritual, social, and economic change within their communities.

JANE AULD

Jane Auld is a former barrister who practised for 25 years, specialising in family law. Alongside her legal career, she helped establish the Lantern Playschool in Bristol, rooted in her church community. After retiring from the Bar to raise her two sons, Jane became deeply involved in the Alpha Course, serving as an adviser across Bath, North-East Somerset, and the South West. In 2012, she moved to lead the National Parenting Initiative, which she headed until 2022. Jane is passionate about transforming family life through faith, believing that strong, healthy relationships are built through encountering Jesus Christ and that churches have a vital role to play in promoting that transformation.

LADY CAROL BAKER

Carol Baker family heritage connects to Turku, Finland, and extends through France and neighbouring countries. Raised in Sussex, she studied Industrial Design at Chelsea Art School in London and served as a governor at a South London primary school.

Married to Nicholas Baker, MP for North Dorset (1979–1997), she also held governance roles at two rural private schools. Carol later worked in prison restorative justice. Her Christian faith highlights Jesus' Jewish roots and the Church's mission. She now lives in the West Country and attends Kingdom Faith church.

SARAH BELCHER

Sarah Belcher is based in rural Lincolnshire, where she is an integral leader within the Threshold Network, overseeing the Kingdom Embassy Church. This movement focuses on prayer and action to promote reformation and encourage individuals to encounter faith across various societal sectors. Additionally, Sarah plays a significant role in The Foundry International, a group committed to advancing Christianity and alleviating poverty worldwide. With a heart for community transformation, she collaborates on initiatives to address spiritual and social needs. Sarah's work bridges local outreach and international efforts to foster meaningful change

REBECCA BENSTED

Rebecca Bensted, a barrister called to the Bar in 1993, is the Centre Manager at the Christian Legal Centre. She has over two decades of experience teaching legal writing to Bar students at BPP Law School and continues to play a key role in legal education as an external examiner for the Bar Standards Board and a standard setter for their ethics assessments. Married to a Church of England clergyman, Rebecca is actively involved in church affairs and serves as a lay member of the Church of England's General Synod. She is committed to integrating her legal skills with her Christian faith to uphold justice and truth

JULIA BICKNELL

Julia Bicknell is an experienced broadcast journalist and conflict reporter, having worked for the BBC World Service and World TV for 35 years. She produced Woman's Hour on BBC 4 before spending time in Pakistan, Afghanistan, Nigeria, Kenya, Sudan, and South Sudan, training and developing national journalists.

In 2012 Julia co-founded World Watch Monitor, a news service reporting on the global Church under pressure. In 2019, she and a colleague were runners-up in the RNA awards (The Religion News Association), for their work in Turkey. Julia also founded the Premier News Service and was the first weekday Breakfast Show Editor and co-presenter. She is now a freelance journalist, mentor and coach.

HENRIETTA BLYTH

Henrietta Blyth is the CEO of Open Doors UK and Ireland, an organisation dedicated to supporting persecuted Christians globally. Before joining Open Doors, she served as the People and Organisational Development Director at Tearfund, where she led international HR and change management initiatives. Henrietta is passionate about justice and equality for marginalised groups.

She has worked extensively in East and West Africa, focusing on international development and transformational leadership. Her current work involves advocacy for religious freedom, ensuring persecuted Christians receive support and their voices get heard on a global platform.

DR LISSANT BOLTON

Lissant Bolton is a distinguished anthropologist and curator with over four decades of expertise in Pacific cultures, particularly in Vanuatu. Currently serving as Keeper of the Department of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas at the British Museum, she has been pivotal in initiatives to revive and sustain women's cultural practices.

Since 1989, she has collaborated with the Vanuatu Cultural Centre, notably chairing the Women's Culture Project, which documents and promotes traditional arts like basketry and mat-making. Dr. Bolton has authored several key publications, including Unfolding the Moon, and actively advances reconciliation through the repatriation of cultural artefacts.

PASTOR, DR. GWEN BRADLEY

Gwen Bradley is the National Liaison for Prayer Mobilization and Partnerships, as well as the National Area Leader of the Southeast Region. She is recognised as a global strategic intercessor, pastor, teacher, media influencer and an international conference speaker.

Gwen diligently serves alongside her husband, Bishop Dr Willie Bradley as Pastors and Founders of Anointed Remnant International Ministry in Prattville, Alabama. The couple also founded Anointed Remnant Global Assemblies, a global Fellowship providing mentorship to leaders in North America, the Caribbean, Australia, Asia, Europe and Africa. Along with her work in the National Day of Prayer Task Force, she is the assistant director of She Leads Alabama.

KATHY BRANZELL

Kathy Branzell currently serves as the president of the National Day of Prayer Task Force after serving as a longtime member of the Board of Directors. She is also the Co-Chair of the Global Church Network, and on the President's Council for the National Religious Broadcasters.

Along with her work on behalf of the National Day of Prayer Task Force, she was the founder and president of Fellowship and Christian Encouragement (FACE) for Educators. Here she authored seventeen years of weekly scripture reading, prayer prompts and devotionals for educators to use in their weekly prayer meetings through the school year.

FIONA BRUCE

Fiona Bruce served as the Member of Parliament for Congleton from 2010 to 2024 and was appointed as the Prime Minister's Special Envoy for Freedom of Religion or Belief in 2020.

Fiona also worked as a solicitor and founded her law firm in Cheshire before entering Parliament, where she focused on championing human rights, including freedom of belief, both in the UK and internationally. Fiona also served on several parliamentary committees, including the International Development Select Committee and the Joint Committee on Human Rights. She was awarded Conservative MP of the Year in 2022 for her dedication to combating persecution and discrimination.

SHANEEN CLARKE

Shaneen Clarke is an author, international speaker, and life coach whose mission is to inspire and empower people from all walks of life. She has delivered impactful talks at prestigious private schools, universities, international faith conferences, and corporate events, leaving a lasting impression on diverse audiences.

Shaneen's seminars have reached wider audiences through her engaging television and radio appearances, addressing topics of personal growth, faith, and leadership. A gifted communicator, she is passionate about encouraging individuals to unlock their potential and embrace positive change. Shaneen's dedication to transforming lives has earned her recognition as a dynamic and influential voice globally.

KATHLEEN COOKE

Kathleen Cooke is a global speaker, award-winning media producer, writer, and SAG actress. As Co-Founder of Cooke Media Group and the nonprofit organisation, Influence Lab Woman, she is passionate about empowering women in media and leadership.

Kathleen publishes the Influence Journal and hosts the monthly Influence Women podcast, equipping women to make a positive impact in their industries. As author of 'The Devotional Hope 4 Today: Stay Connected to God in a Distracted Culture', Kathleen's insights have been featured on numerous radio shows, podcasts, and television programmes, inspiring audiences worldwide.

HELENA CROFT MBE

Helena Croft MBE is an experienced visionary leader, public speaker, former council deputy leader, and expert in understanding sexual violence and the exploitation of women. She is the She Leads UK Director and the founder and CEO of the award-winning charity StreetlightUK, one of the only 34 charities in the UK to be given an award in 2021 by the Queen for its frontline work during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Having worked with some of the most vulnerable and marginalised women within communities in over 25 years; Helena is an advocate and role model for women across all walks of life. Helena is also a published author of 'No Little Girls Dream', and was awarded an MBE in the Kings 2023 birthday honor's.

DR TONI COOPER

With over 25 years of experience in leadership training and coaching, Toni has a proven track record of designing, developing, and operating innovative training initiatives for companies. She has successfully led three organisations and is currently the founder and CEO of CPG Leadership. Toni offers customized training and coaching experiences that positively impact leaders and their teams.

She possesses extensive experience in helping government leaders, corporations, and athletes develop effective communication strategies and achieve their goals. Beyond her company, Toni is a motivational and leadership speaker and bestselling author.

COUNTESS FAYE DE PELET

Faye De Pelet is the director of FDP Properties Limited and has been on the board of trustees for The Big Church Festival. Faye and her husband Hubert have a passion to see young adults and youth work flourishing, and have a close relationship to LZ7, an organisation working in high schools and encouraging young adults to root themselves in faith.

Faye is also a Trustee for LightUK, an organisation committed to strengthen the Church. She's the daughter of property tycoons Russell and Geraldine Garner, as well as a mother of two beautiful daughters.

REP. NANCY DEBOER

Nancy DeBoer is the Assistant Director for She Leads Michigan and She Leads America. As former Mayor of Holland, Michigan (2015–2019), Nancy brought visionary leadership to her community, focusing on growth and civic engagement.

In 2022, she was elected to the Michigan House of Representatives for the 86th District, representing 103,000 constituents. Known for her dedication to public service, Nancy is also a sought-after speaker and mentor, inspiring others through her faith-driven approach to leadership and her commitment to societal change.

REV. LIZ DOYLE

Ohio/Michigan USA native, Liz Doyle, began her speaking career on the war-torn streets of Belfast, N. Ireland in 1972. There she met her husband, Syd, and together they went on to pioneer and pastor 3 churches in southern England. In 1996 she began the movement, Releasing Daughters of the Last Days, which has taken her to nearly 60 countries on 6 continents training and mobilizing 100's of thousands of women in evangelism.

Liz is the Executive Director of She Leads America Inc. She founded it in 2019 to give Christian women in the USA a voice. Christian women in leadership across all sectors of society are honored through peer recommendation and State and Federal Government.

ELLENA EDMISTON

Ellena Edmiston was an accountant under the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants (CIMA) professional body. She began working for Christian Vision at the end of 2018 and is currently part of their global finance team, completing her CIMA qualification in 2023. Being involved in her family business has helped her and her siblings better understand their responsibilities as stewards of this business for God's Kingdom.

Ellena is actively engaged with a charity called Pink Letters, an organisation that aims to encourage young girls throughout their school years by sending them handwritten letters monthly. They currently reach over 1,000 girls across 25 countries who receive letters monthly, and they are expanding.

DR. ELIZABETH ENNS

Elizabeth Enns is a dedicated leader and community advocate with a strong background in education and ministry. She is the co-founder and pastor of Antioch International Church in Fort Mill, South Carolina, where she has served since 2006. In 2018, she earned a doctorate in theology and later founded Patriotic Students of America in 2021 to inspire young people to embrace patriotism.

Elizabeth is also an active political leader, serving as the Chair of the York County GOP Legislative Committee and President of the Sugar Creek Republican Women's Club. Additionally, she co-leads Pray-USA, a national prayer initiative, and has launched the 90/10 initiative to promote community-driven solutions.

HARRIS FAULKER

Harris Faulker is a journalist and a multiple Emmy award-winning anchor for FOX News. She joined FOX News Channel in 2005 and currently hosts the top-rated daily daytime programme – The Faulker Focus and serves as the co-host of Outnumbered. She also hosts her own primetime political franchise called Town Hall America with Harris Faulker.

Additionally, Harris is a nationally bestselling author, with her biography '9 Rules of Engagement: A Military Brat's Guide to Life and Success' and more recently 'Faith Still Moves Mountains: Miraculous Stories of the Healing Power of Prayer', an instant New York Times Best Seller.

LOU FELLINGHAM

Lou is a songwriter and internationally known worship leader. With ten albums made, she has been ever-present in the music industry for the last 28 years. Lou is known for her prophetic edge, distinctive voice, and energy to see lives changed through the power of music and word.

Lou also leads the well loved 'Worship Wednesdays' where she began to share her ministry of song and word online each week. It has created opportunity for community, prayer and worship to continue when the doors of the church buildings were officially closed. Made For You was also started by Lou in 2020, a one day conference for women to equip, encourage and enjoy God together.

NANCY GOUDIE

Nancy Goudie is a well-known speaker with a passion to see God bring revival. She co-founded The NGM Trust which works with churches, conferences and events to see lives transformed by the love and power of God.

Nancy also founded her Spiritual Health Weekends which have been running for over 27 years, where ladies attend from across the world to get both pampered physically and toned up spiritually. Nancy also runs a bursary scheme which allows women to attend from broken and hurting backgrounds by partnering with agencies such as CAP. Nancy has authored 20 books and released 5 meditation CDs.

CANDY-ELLIE GRAHAM

Candy is the visionary behind Cultural Style Week. Aligned with the United Nations' World Day for Cultural Diversity, this initiative encourages participants to proudly showcase their cultural styles and heritage online, promoting cultural tolerance and acceptance.

In addition to her work with Cultural Style Week, Candy is the founder of Cultural Fashion & Arts CIC, which creates culturally relevant educational resources and hosts impactful events. She is also an associate prayer minister with Ellel Ministries and shares her personal healing journey through her YouTube videos, helping others maintain freedom through Christ.

RACHEL HICKSON

Rachel founded Heartcry Ministries in 1990, which helps local churches with training in the areas of prayer and the prophetic. Rachel and is an international leader, speaker and author of 11 books, writing on prayer, the prophetic gift and devotional guides. She is a much valued preacher and evangelist.

Rachel spent the first 16 years of her life in India and then married Gordon in 1981. Together they pastored a group of four churches in Hertfordshire and it was during this time that they established Heartcry Ministries. Rachel and Gordon travel internationally, training leaders, speaking at conferences, strengthening the Church and love the diversity of different cultures.

EMILY HIBARD

Emily Hibard studied Political Science and History at Azusa Pacific University, completed a Masters in Public Administration (MPA) at California State University in Northridge, before studying Modern Political Thought at the University of Oxford. Hibard has authored four guidebooks on how to start non-profit organisations, owns a media agency, Hibard Group, and, in 2022, was elected to the Los Alamitos City Council.

Additionally, she has climbed Tanzania's Mount Kilimanjaro, ran two marathons, and traveled to all seven continents before her thirtieth birthday. Hibard has dedicated the past twenty-one years advocating for women and children and serves as a national board member for the HovingHome, a residential program helping women rebuild their shattered lives.

GINGER HOWARD

If two words could sum up the life and interests of Ginger Howard, they would be faith and fashion. Ginger's faith in God defines her work as the owner of the small boutique, Ginger Howard Selections, in Buckhead, Georgia. The importance of modesty and the beauty of lady-like styles, guide her selections for the fashion forward clothes available at her store.

In August of 2020, Ginger co-authored her first book with Dr Alveda King 'We're Not Colourblind, Healing the Racial Divide'. The books focus is unity and helping others recognise that we are all one race according to Acts 17:26. Ginger serves as the Republican National Committee woman for the state of Georgia.

TANYA HUGHES OBE

Tanya Hughes was awarded an OBE in 2019 for her charity work and contribution to work on The Lammy 2017; a review of the treatment of Black, Asian, and Minority Ethnic individuals in the Criminal Justice System. Tanya is the co-founder of City Women Outreach and on the board for both Prison Radio and Women on the Frontline, a charity for women subject to Human Trafficking and forced into the sex industry.

Tanya also founded girls2school which supported girls in Kenya with reusable sanitary products, and more recently supported an NGO in Ghana (SCEF) that works with the street children in James Town, Accra. Tanya currently serves as Deputy Director for HR operations, strategy and policy in HM Treasury.

DAVINA IRWIN-CLARK

Davina was a clergy wife for 40 years in varied parishes across the UK. In that role she met and cared for people in every sort of need and crisis, those with faith, and those with none. She was the High Sheriff of West Sussex in 2020, and as such had extensive access behind the scenes in police and social work, prisons, rehab places and with countless charities.

Davina is a trainer, public speaker and past chair of Women in Mission. She now sits on the board of the award-winning charity StreetlightUK. Since her husband Peter's retirement, they are learning how to run the family farm at Handcross, mid-Sussex.

SUMMER INGRAM

Summer served as the Congressional Prayer Caucus Foundation (CPCF), National Director of Prayer and Mobilisation and most recently Vice President of Legislative Affairs and Prayer Outreach. During her 15-year tenure at CPCF, she helped build and support the American Prayer Caucus Network (a national network of federal and state government leaders in over 40 states).

Summer was also a top producer in real estate. She graduated with a Bachelor of Science in government and business from Liberty University.

An ordained minister, Summer also graduated from Ascend Academy, a three-year school of ministry. She coordinated large-scale events for a ministry in San Diego and co-produced/co-hosted an international Christian television show. Summer is based in Conyers, Georgia, where she enjoys spending time with family, reading, history, travel, scuba diving, and adventure.

BARBARA ANN JETER

Barbara Ann Jeter- Volunteer Co-founder & Chair of the Board for She Leads Tennessee, Eternal Heiress Ministries, which is the umbrella ministry of King's Hill House of Prayer, Pray Nashville, Power Hour Partners, King's Hill Music, and Eternal Heiress Publishing. She is also the co-author of #1 Best Seller, 50 Days to Transformation. Her discipleship material that she co-authored has been successfully used in local detention centers & globally to bring transformation to troubled youth, orphans, abused or sex trafficked women. She graduated with honors from college, has masters level work in Marriage and Family Therapy, was in the top quarter of her class at Brandeis School of Law, and has her certification in Negotiation Mastery through Harvard Business/HBX.

REV. KATE JINADU

Kate Jinadu is the International President of Covenant Women, New Covenant Church. She is the Author of 'Foundation for Christian Marriage: A Handbook for Married Couples and Those Preparing for Marriage'. The book is a pointer to the foundation of marriage and how important marriage is to the body of Christ and the society at large.

Part of her work involves improving the quality of life for people living in rural Africa through her charity, Liberty, which provides villages in Nigeria with improved education, health care, clean water, and fair trade. Kate also has a deep passion to empower women in ministry and for winning souls for Christ.

CAPTAIN SHERI JONES

Captain Sheri Jones is a dedicated Officer (ordained pastor) of The Salvation Army, currently serving as the Assistant National Secretary for Program at The Salvation Army National Headquarters. With a strong background in Salvation Army program and a keen eye for detail, her commitment to excellence and her ability to foster strong working relationships make her a respected leader in her field. She and her husband (Captain Trey Jones) have pastored four congregations. They have three children and have lived in various locations throughout the southern United States, reflecting their deep commitment to service and ministry.

DR ALVEDA C. KING

Evangelist Alveda C. King, PhD is Chair of the AFPI Center for the American Dream. She is a guardian of The King Family Legacy, and is a graduate of Aidan University. She is the founder of Alveda King Ministries and co-founder of She Leads Georgia and Speak for Life. Alveda is also an acclaimed author, television host, blog contributor and co-producer of The Vision TV Show. Alveda was twice elected to the Georgia State House, a presidential appointee, Senior Advisor USDA Faith Center, the recipient of the Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award, Senior Advisor at Priests for Life, Senior Advisor Coral Ridge Ministries, Founder of King Legacy Farms, a lifetime member of Cooking Club of America and Optimist International, a former college professor and school principal ; and is a film and music veteran.

ALISA LATTY - ALLEYNE

Alisa Latty-Alleyne is the UK & Ireland National Director for the Christian Broadcasting Network (CBN UK), a global leader in media evangelism and humanitarian outreach. With over 20 years of strategic leadership experience spanning Christian ministry, engineering, sales, and digital technologies, Alisa has driven innovation and transformation globally. At CBN UK, she leads initiatives to introduce one million people to Jesus through digital outreach and faith-based community projects.

A published author, speaker, worship leader, devoted wife, and mother, Alisa empowers women through coaching, resources, and events. She is deeply committed to fostering revival and inspiring generational change across the UK, Europe and the world.

JUDY LITTLER-MANNERS

Judy Littler Manners advocates against anti-Semitism, promotes Holocaust remembrance and the truth about the Jewish people. Through her work with European Coalition for Israel, she has also worked at the UN. Through networking and resourcing she is actively involved in supporting ministries and charities both in the UK and internationally, including evangelistic, creative, prophetic and Israel-related.

She has travelled extensively and opens her home to bless ministry leaders as they pass through the UK. She enjoys interior decoration and in her spare time has built and decorated houses. Judy found her faith as a single mum in her late thirties and is now very blessed with 6 small grandchildren.

REV. DR JANET MANGUM

Dr Melonie Janet Mangum is an intra-generational and intra-cultural team-building leader and project consultant. She is an ordained minister with two doctorate degrees in theology and since 1993, she has led teams across 50 nations, training and equipping members for healing and deliverance.

Janet is also an author of six books, and as a former special needs teacher, many of them are aimed at caring and parenting children with special needs. She previously taught alongside chaplains in mental hospitals and prisons, impacting emotionally handicapped teenagers and adults. Additionally, she is the CEO of Partners for Transformation and volunteer director of Transformation in the evangelism and discipleship leg of Aglow International.

ERIN MERSINO

Erin Elizabeth Mersino is a distinguished attorney specializing in constitutional law. She is Chief of Supreme Court and Appellate Practice at the Thomas More Law Center. Her work focuses on the protection of religious liberty and freedom of speech. She has won several cases in the United States' highest courts. She has been interviewed by various media outlets to provide her expert legal opinion, and her writing has been published by outlets such as USA Today and Politico. She has won awards for excellence including Legatus' Defender of the Faith and her law school's Distinguished Alumni Award.

REV. DR KAREN MARQUEZ MOLINA

Karen Marquez-Molina has been an attorney for over 25 years. Coming from a private banking background, Karen is the founding and managing partner at her own law firm that has formed relationships with many leading institutions, well-established individuals, and companies. She is also a professor, speaker, and lecturer on various topics of law and business.

Karen volunteers with various organisations in her inspired determination to pave the way for the women of today and tomorrow, as well as pastoring a church with her husband. Born of Spanish/Cuban descent, Karen Marquez-Molina is a first generation American who recognises the opportunities of today were made possible by tenacity of previous generations.

REV. ABBIIH OLOYEDE

Abbi Oloyede, fondly known as Pastor A, is a transformational leader, Co-Team Leader at City Chapel London, Trauma-Informed Practitioner, Mentor, and Entrepreneur. She leads The Gold Portfolio, a bullion investment company, and serves as a director at Alpha Childcare. Her passion for spiritual and personal growth birthed Prophetic Insights and SPD — Spiritual and Personal Development Program.

She is the Prayer Lead for the God Loves You Tour and She Leads UK, and oversees Women's World, a platform inspiring women to maximise their God-given gifts. Abbi is married to Dr Jonathan Oloyede; together they host Transformational Moments on TBN UK. They are blessed with two young adults.

DR. MODUPE OMIDEYI

Dr Modupe Omidoyi is the Founder and Chair of Lighthouse Harmonize Education Trust, which runs Harmonize Academy, an Alternative Education School for students in Years 9–11. The school has had 'Outstanding' Ofsted ratings since its founding in 2013. Previously she has worked as a chemical engineer, teacher, adult educator and project director.

Modupe is a founding trustee of LJM, a foundation steeped in seeking God through prayer with fasting, reading His word the bible, strong family fellowship, and centrality of Christ. Recently retiring as Rector and CEO of Liverpool Lighthouse, she heads the equipping team with responsibility for all biblical resources. Additionally, she co-pastors the Temple of Praise in Anfield, Liverpool with her husband Tani.

ELAINE PETTY

Elaine Petty is committed to building individuals in personal, professional, and spiritual leadership internationally. As an associate faculty for the Pellegrino Center for Clinical Bioethics at Georgetown University, she teaches bioethics to med students and previously practiced as a pediatric oncology nurse.

She has been a speaker for professional groups across Europe and provided leadership coaching to executives. Elaine also worked as the associate director for the International School Project, a joint venture with the Russian Ministry of Education training Russian teachers to use a curriculum teaching biblical morals and ethics. She also worked in a US Senate office addressing issues of international religious freedom, writing legislation, and dealing with cases of religious persecution.

DR DIAHANNE RHINEY

Diahanne Rhiney, BC Ae, founded Naked Truth, the first social change agency specialising in diversity marketing and race relations. Through this, she trademarked the concept Me-ology™, which encourages women to become their best selves. Diahanne launched the Strength With in Me (S.W.I.M), foundation to raise awareness for domestic and advocate for healthy relationships.

She also spearheaded the development of an All-Party Parliamentary Group, leading to the introduction of healthy relationship education in UK schools. Diahanne has received several awards, including the British Citizen Award and NatWest Everywoman Athena Award, and created The Baton Awards in honour of her late mother, to recognise women pioneers from diverse racial groups.

JOELLE RICH

Joelle Richa is a passionate speaker, dedicated leader, and the founder of a women's ministry. Joelle inspires women to embrace their unique roles as ambassadors of Christ. As an executive coach and founder of 'Awaken Platform' she aids women in senior positions to navigate their challenges. Joelle conducts workshops and seminars designed to guide women in discovering their God-given identity and purpose.

Beyond her ministry work, she founded a leadership consultancy in London, where she offers tailored coaching and resources to enhance women's leadership skills. Joelle also gives presentations across the UK, Europe, and the Middle East. Through them, she encourages women to step boldly into their God-given destinies.

LYNDA ROSE

Lynda Rose is an Anglican priest, writer, and dedicated advocate for social justice. After being called to the Bar in 1983, she shifted her focus to ministry, becoming one of the first women ordained in the Anglican Church. Lynda currently serves as the CEO of Voice for Justice UK, an organisation that campaigns to protect the rights of the disadvantaged, marginalised, and to preserve Christian freedoms in a secular world.

She is also the Convenor of the Lords and Commons Family and Child Protection Group, an independent, cross-party parliamentary research body. Lynda has written several books and frequently contributes to Christian Today and other Christian media outlets, championing faith-based values in society.

DR. RONI SAVAGE

Roni Savage is the CEO and founder of Jomas Associates, an engineering firm that has been supporting the construction industry since 2009. Recognised as the Most Influential Woman in Construction in 2022, Roni is a Chartered Engineer, Fellow of the Institution of Civil Engineers, Chartered Geologist, and Honorary Fellow of the Royal Institute of British Architects.

She holds a BEng in Engineering Geology, a Master's degree in Environmental Management, and received an honorary doctorate from the University of Portsmouth in 2023 for her exceptional work in construction. Roni has contributed to major UK infrastructure projects, specialising in sustainable remediation. As a strong advocate for diversity, she also holds leadership roles in policy and charity.

JULIE ANN SCOTT

Julie Ann has been a successful professional artist for more than twenty years, ten of which were with De Montfort Fine Art, the UK's leading art agency. Her oil paintings are bought and exhibited worldwide and she paints in front of live audiences at conferences around the world. This global recognition led to an invite to paint the main image for the 2025 US National Day of Prayer.

Julie Ann was commissioned by the Coptic Archbishop of London to produce a painting for an event in Parliament to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the execution of the 21 Coptic Christian Martyrs. She also has an exhibition of nine oil paintings depicting moments from WW2, called 'STAND'. This exhibition has toured venues throughout the UK.

OLA SIJUWADE

Ola is a minister for Shalom Community Church and is passionate about seeing the word of God transform and rebuild the lives of everyday people. Through her work ministering to women, she has seen many lives impacted positively by the Lord. As a prophetic intercessor she has experienced the Lord using her to bring about answers to prayers.

In her professional life as a Commissioner of GP services, she acts as a Chaplin to providers of primary care who may be struggling with various issues. Providing space for leaders in her community to find care, solace and safety to enable them to continue doing a crucial role. She is also married to Michael and is blessed with 3 daughters.

REBECCA SMITH MP

Rebecca Jane Smith is a British Conservative Party politician who has represented South West Devon as a Member of Parliament since 2024.

She was first elected to Plymouth City Council in 2018, serving the Plymstock Radford ward. On the opposition frontbench, under Kemi Badenoch, she holds the role of junior whip. Throughout her political career, Smith has shown a strong commitment to public service and local advocacy, steadily building her influence in British politics. Her work at both local and national levels highlights her dedication to advancing Conservative Party objectives and supporting her constituents.

BERNADETTE SMYTH

Bernie Smyth is the founder and director of Precious Life, a pro-life organisation in Northern Ireland. For over 17 years, she has been a vocal advocate for the rights of the unborn, organising peaceful protests and prayer vigils outside abortion clinics, particularly the Marie Stopes clinic in Belfast.

Her activism has led to legal battles, where Smyth's work has sparked debates on religious freedom and the right to protest. She is recognised for her tireless campaigning and has earned respect in the pro-life community.

BOLAJI SOFOLUWE MBE

Bolaji Sofoluwe, Enterprise Trade & Knowledge Group (ETK Group) co-founder, pioneers technology and local insight to aid businesses in Africa. As a DBT Export Champion since 2020, her experience overseeing £1 billion+ projects showcases her innovative leadership. Bolaji champions sustainability in Nigeria and fosters diversity as BGen International's Board Chair, mentoring women in STEM. She has developed technology that enhances her methodology for market entry.

She provides strategic insights by Guest Lecturing in some of the UK's finest institutions and is involved in the UK's Global Youth Innovators Programme to empower future leaders. Additionally, Bolaji provides guidance on the pastoral Board at Kingsland Church, Colchester, while sponsoring healthcare for disadvantaged individuals in Africa.

LINDA STALLEY

Linda has been a co-leader of The Maranatha Community since 2008 and a member since 1985. Her passion for unity in the Body of Christ has involved development of Christian prayer and healing ministry not only for individuals, but also the Church, society and nations. Representing She has participated in many national prayer initiatives, in unity with other Christian ministries.

Linda has been deeply involved in the preparation and delivery of Parliamentary consultation papers on a variety of topics relevant to Christian values in the nation. She worked as a medical doctor, mainly in General Practice, for 27 years. She is a leading member of a voluntary medical team working with the homeless.

BRANDI SWINDELL

Brandi Swindell is a nationally known speaker, advocate for human rights, and the Founder and CEO of Stanton Healthcare and Stanton Public Policy Center. Stanton Healthcare is committed to providing women facing unexpected pregnancies with professional medical care, wellness services, and resources. Stanton Public Policy Center, based in Washington D.C., is a women's advocacy and educational group that works on issues of human rights and pro-life justice.

Brandi testified before Congress as an expert in life-affirming women's healthcare. Brandi has been featured in both the national and international media, including Time Magazine, Cosmopolitan Magazine, the New York Times, the Washington Post, FOX NEWS, CNN, and the BBC.

PASTOR GEORGIA SPICER

Georgia Spicer earned her degree in Textile Design and Innovation in 2016 and began her career at a show home design company but chose to dedicate herself to motherhood after marrying in 2015. As a mother to four daughters, Georgia serves on the pastoral team at Mosaic Church Coventry, where she leads the student and young adult ministry whilst overseeing social media and communications.

Having grown up in a family business, she is now developing her understanding of ownership, blending her passions for business and ministry in her leadership journey.

DR. SHEENA TRANTER

Sheena has been employed as Abdominal Laparoscopic Specialist surgeon at the Bristol Royal Infirmary since 2003, and was Deputy Dean of the medical School Academy for six years. Sheena has been actively involved in a variety of ministries, with a particular focus in government.

As a director of the Conservative Christian Fellowship, she co-founded Prayers for the Nation which occur every month at the Houses of Parliament, with many MP's in attendance. She founded the Jerusalem Prayer Breakfast in 2017 and co-leads the European Prayer Breakfast. As a leader of the National Reconciliation Forum, Sheena has a passion for Commonwealth family of Nations, leading repentance and seeking restitution through trade and investment.

JUGBIR WARE

Jugbir Ware is a highly experienced Children's Social Worker and manager, with over 20 years in the sector. For the past eight years, this has included working with the Kinship Carers, and for the last five years has served as Kinship Service Manager. Jugbir is committed to keeping children with their families whenever possible and has dedicated her career to advocating for and supporting kinship care for vulnerable children.

In 2023-2024, under her leadership, her team at West Sussex achieved a record-breaking year-reversing a ten-year downward trend. They assessed and approved the highest number of foster carers in a single year, defying national trends.

ARIANNA WALKER

Arianna Walker is the CEO of Mercy UK and a Director at the Mind and Soul Foundation, two leading Christian mental health charities. She established Mercy UK in 2006 and now oversees its continued development across the UK and Europe. As a coaching psychologist, Arianna runs a private practice, Equipped for Life, specialising in personal and leadership development for individuals and organisations. With over 25 years' leadership experience, she combines evidence-based psychology with practical coaching. Arianna has designed and delivered innovative training programmes, workshops, and seminars focused on resilience, stress management and menopause wellness. In addition, she is a Trustee for several charities, a published author, and international conference speaker.

ANNEKA WALLINGTON

Anneka Wallington is the founder of Recognised, a leading social impact designer and retailer of jewellery. 100% of profits from the statement 'popons' sold are donated to powerful causes, such as, cancer support, the fight against modern slavery and racial injustice. For her compassionate work, Anneka Wallington was named Young British Businesswoman of the Year in October 2021 as well as Retail Jeweller's 30 Under 30 Rising Star in 2024. In 2023, Anneka launched The Recognised Foundation which provides grants to exceptional charities and educates people about the causes through a podcast and social media campaigns. She has contributed to media outlets such as The Times, Premier Christian Radio, and the HTB Leadership Conference.

DR. MICHELLE WHITE

Michelle White (FRCA) is a consultant an anesthetist at Great Ormond Street Hospital (GOSH) in London, focusing on pediatric anesthesia and intensive care. Before joining GOSH in 2017, she worked with Mercy Ships, an international charity delivering surgical care in Africa. During her five years there, Dr. White led the Medical Capacity Building program and supported the adoption of the WHO Surgical Safety Checklist in Madagascar, Benin, and Cameroon. She holds a PhD in Global Health and Implementation Science and continues her efforts in pediatric care and global health policy through both clinical and advocacy roles.

SYLVIA L. WILLIAMS

Sylvia L. Williams is the founder and apostle of two ministries—He Giveth More Grace Ministries, and Women of Destiny and Grace, a ministry that focuses on the emotional and spiritual development of women from all walks of life. She is the assistant pastor of Merciful Ministries International Training Center. He Giveth More Grace Ministries & Women of Destiny and Grace As well as giving prophetic teachings, Apostle Sylvia is an international speaker and a published author and journalist. In 2004, she published the 'Spiritual Warfare Training Manual' and 'The Womb of Your Prayers: Birthing God's Answers to Your Intercession' in 2021. She is also a former assistant professor of journalism at Metropolitan State University of Denver.